

As of December 1, 2000

U.S. District Court Middle District of Florida

Electronic Courtroom Site Configurations

“Full Tech” Courtroom includes:

- ✓ Videoconference ready (Point-to-point conference upgradable to multi-point conferencing capability using district MCU)
- ✓ Cabling infrastructure in place to support digital evidence presentation unit consisting of:
 - Document camera/projector for display of physical objects or documents
 - VCR for videotape display
 - Illustrator/annotator tablet for attorneys and witness to electronically mark or annotate in color any image displayed in courtroom
 - Image printer to print a photo-quality color copy of any image displayed in courtroom
 - Audio fully integrated into courtroom sound system
 - Three 37" monitors for jury, witness, and attorneys
 - Judge and courtroom clerk desktop monitors switchable between digital and video modes
 - Monoral recording capability
 - Monoral audio playback capability
- ✓ Centralized monitor and audio control at judge and clerk stations
- ✓ Real-time transcript display capability
- ✓ State-of-the-art courtroom audio systems with up to 24 microphone input
- ✓ Teleconferencing capability integrated into courtroom audio system
- ✓ Wireless, infra-red court interpreter and hearing impaired systems
- ✓ Built-in projection screen and white-board

“DEPS (Digital Evidence Presentation System) Ready” Courtroom Includes:

- ✓ All of the features of the “Full Tech” courtroom, but without permanent installation of videoconference equipment.
- ✓ In the future, these courtrooms will be jacked to accept portable videoconferencing systems which include:
 - PictureTel Venue 2000 equipment
 - Two 32" monitors (one live and one preview for documents)
 - VCR
 - Document camera
 - Remote keypad

“Low Tech” Courtroom Includes:

- ✓ Centralized monitor and audio control at judge and clerk stations
- ✓ Real-time transcript display capability
- ✓ State-of-the-art courtroom audio systems with up to 24 microphone input
- ✓ Teleconferencing capability integrated into courtroom audio system
- ✓ Wireless, infra-red court interpreter and hearing impaired systems
- ✓ Built-in projection screen and white-board

DRIVING DISTANCE (IN MILES)

	JAX	ORL	TPA	Ft.M	OCA
JAX		140	224	341	109
ORL	140		84	201	81
TPA	224	84		130	98
Ft.M	341	201	130		217
OCA	109	81	98	217	***

Tampa

2 “Full Tech” courtrooms
7 “DEPS Ready” courtrooms
6 “Low Tech” courtrooms

Ft. Myers

1 “Full Tech” courtroom
1 “DEPS Ready” courtroom
1 “Low Tech” courtroom

Jacksonville

1 DEPS unit

Orlando

2 DEPS units